GODLY WIVES AND MOTHERS

Godly wives and mothers. There is nothing else on earth quite like them, or anything else on earth that quite compares to them. This, as seen in their constant, continual, and consummate Christ-like love, and the totally selfless and sacrificial lives they live. This is not just something they simply do, but is something they truly are. As such, according to God, they are totally priceless (Prov. 31:10); infinitely trustworthy (vs. 11); and ultimately, one of the greatest and most beneficial blessings known to man (vs. 12). She is a willing and tireless worker whose only concern is for those whom she loves; for those who are less fortunate; and for the respect and reputation of her household (vss. 13-24). Her godly strength, honor, wisdom, and kindness are unsurpassed, unsuppressed, and therefore help to provide a bright and glorious future for both her and her family as well (vss. 25-26). She is always watching, always working, and therefore always worthy of the praise and adoration of her children, as well as that of her infinitely blessed and privileged husband (vss. 27-29). Indeed, as Proverbs 31 concludes: "Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her Of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates" (vss. 30-31). To all of the mature godly women among us today – wives, mothers, and grandmothers of all generations and designations – we want you to know that you are: truly a blessing beyond words; an inspiration beyond imagination; and a gift from God to each and every one of us blessed enough to know and love you. Thank you for letting us see Jesus in you – and not just today, but each and every day you live. May God continue to bless you all, as you continue to so selflessly serve, show us, and shine forth the light of Him, whom you so much love and seek to emulate.

New Testament Christianity

WELCOME!

Welcome to the services of the church of Christ of the Palm Beaches! You are our honored guest!

We are a congregation of the church of which you can read in the Bible. We strive to do Bible things in Bible ways and to call Bible things by Bible names; to be Christians and Christians only. It is our goal to simply and plainly preach and teach New Testament Christianity.

You will find our worship simple and according to the New Testament pattern. We worship the same way that Peter, Paul, and John worshipped—In spirit and in truth (John 4:24).

Our Headquarters is in heaven, our Creed is Christ and our book is the Bible. The Bible only will make Christians only and that is our plea.

We certainly hope that all we do will be encouraging and uplifting to you. Please take a moment to fill out a visitors' card located in the pew in front of you and place it in the card holder at the end of the pew.

The New Testament claims to be the source of authority for all we do that is of eternal importance, no matter when or where we live (Colossians 3:17; 2 Peter 1:3, 20–21; 2 Timothy 3:16–17). The New Testament will not share authority with any other book or “revelation” (Galatians 1:6–9; Jude 1:3). The New Testament reveals how a person becomes a Christian (Acts 2:37–47; Ephesians 4:4–6). The New Testament teaches us that the Lord adds Christians to His church (Acts 2:47). The New Testament shows us how that church is organized and led (Acts 20:28; 1 Timothy 3:1–12; Philippians 1:1; 1 Peter 5:1–4). The New Testament gives us the day that Christians met to worship (Acts 20:7; 1 Corinthians 16:1–2). The New Testament clarifies for us the various roles and responsibilities God has given to each gender of Christians in the work and worship of His church (1 Timothy 2:8–15). The New Testament teaches the Christian how God wants to be worshipped (John 4:24). The New Testament outlines the Christian’s purpose and work (Ephesians 4:11–16). The New Testament is dedicated to showing how one, as a faithful Christian, has eternal life and the hope of heaven (Titus 1:2; Revelation 2:10; chapters 21–22). The New Testament helps us understand how God wants marriage and family to function, to build Christian homes (Matthew 19:1–12; Ephesians 5:22–6:4; 1 Peter 3:1–7). The New Testament urges Christian growth and thoroughly teaches how that is accomplished (2 Peter 3:18; Titus 2:11–14; John 15:1–5). The New Testament constantly speaks of how the Christian needs and benefits from developing an intimate relationship with the Godhead (1 Thessalonians 5:17; John 15:14; Matthew 22:36–40). The New Testament teaches that Christians prove to others their discipleship to Christ by loving one another (John 13:34–35). The New Testament reveals that Christians are tasked with multiplying themselves by teaching the gospel to those outside of Christ (Matthew 28:18–20; Acts 8:4; Colossians 1:23). The New Testament asserts itself as the unfailing, universal guide regarding anything that will ultimately matter (2 Peter 1:3; John 14:26; 16:13). If what we are after is divine guidance for what makes a Christian and how God wants one to live, where else would we turn but to the New Testament? A God who engineered us for eternity and tells us we have but two eternal dwelling options would be cruel and unloving if He did not give us clear, thorough answers to any matter that is important to Him. How loving and faithful for God to give us such an unambiguous guide!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Where the scriptures speak, we speak; and where the scriptures are silent, we are silent.”

– Thomas Campbell

FOOD FOR THOUGHT:

“Everyone born once will die twice, Everyone born twice will die once.”

GEMS FROM GREEK

Hagiasmos (Noun). Gr. Αγιάσμος

“holiness; consecration; sanctification; to be set apart.”

Once one is baptized into Christ they are set apart (made holy, sanctified) (1 Cor. 1:2). Sanctification is not a mystical occurrence but a change of location in the sight of God. We are sanctified in Christ by the word of God (Jn. 17:17; Rom. 6:3,4,18; Tit. 3:5).

PEARLS FROM PROVERBS

“Better a little fear of the lord than great treasure with turmoil.”

Prov. 15:16

BIBLE-CENTERED PREACHING

Another root of the restoration was Bible-founded and Bible-centered preaching. The men that set about to call man back to the Bible knew the Bible and preached the Bible. The Bible was their textbook. This root is fast drying up. There is too much preaching today that has everything in it but the Bible. I may not know whether a man is quoting from Norman Vincent Peale, or not, but I know enough about the Bible to know when a man is quoting from it. It is a tragedy for a man to get up in the pulpit with a Bible and then never use it. Some would do the church service if they left their Bible at home and got into the pulpit with a stack of magazines and Dale Carnegie's books so the man in the pew would know what was taking place. It is high time we put the preacher back in the study with his Bible and let him know we expect him to "get with it and preach it." Some sermons I have heard recently would not have been tolerated in the country church where I grew up. He might have preached one, but that would have been the limit. They wanted the Bible and a man either preached that or he did not preach.
